EPISODE 018: LEADING WITH GENEROSITY

Leading with generosity is about more than tasks—it's about investing in people. A generous leader gives their time, talent, and opportunities to help others grow, knowing that when individuals thrive, the team excels. Generosity in leadership fosters a culture where everyone feels valued and empowered to reach their potential.

1. LEADING THROUGH GENEROSITY

Leadership is not about position but about service and generosity. A leader's success is tied to the success of those they lead.

How do you currently practice generosity as a leader, and where do you see room for growth?

2. LEADING THROUGH TIME

Investing time into people creates stronger connections and more productive teams. However, balancing time between tasks and relationships can be a challenge.

Use this space to write down three ways you can prioritize time for meaningful interactions with your team this week:

3. LEADING THROUGH TALENTS

Every leader has unique talents and strengths that can empower others. Knowing and sharing these talents can create lasting value for the team.

What are your strengths and how can you invest them into others?

4. LEADING THROUGH OPPORTUNITIES

Providing opportunities for others to grow is one of the most generous acts of leadership. These moments, even outside comfort zones, can transform individuals and teams.

How can you identify and create opportunities that encourage your team members to develop their skills and confidence?
